

Mr. Michael D. Dubois

August 26, 1983 - February 2, 2013

Michael D. Dubois

Loving Brother, Uncle, Friend

LOWELL—Michael D. Dubois, 29, a resident of the Sacred Heart Neighborhood, passed away on Saturday, February 2, 2013.

Michael was born in Lowell on August 26, 1983, a son of the late Normand W. Dubois and Rejeanne R. (Bernier) Dubois. He was a graduate of the Sacred Heart Grammar School, Lowell High School and the University of Massachusetts Lowell. Michael was a popular English Teacher at the Lowell High School Freshman Academy. Michael loved teaching and loved his students.

He was a devoted son, brother, nephew, uncle, friend and teacher. He lived life to the fullest and cherished the time he spent with family and friends.

Michael was the type of guy who was always there when you needed him. He could cheer you up with his contagious smile, which you couldn't help but return. Michael was warm, loving, and huggable. He always had a positive attitude.

Always active, he enjoyed camping, going to the beach, working out, and traveling.

Michael was the most amazing uncle to his nieces and nephews. He could fill any room with laughter and made friends wherever he was and with whomever he was with. He was wise beyond his years. Michael was great at everything he did. He was all about getting things done. Michael was a good listener and was a motivator, two qualities that made him a good person and a great teacher.

Michael is survived by his three sisters, Jacqueline Dubois Zegowitz and her husband James of Westford, Diane Dubois Prestipino of Lowell, Suzanne Dubois Frediani and her husband Jason of Lowell, and his brother, David Dubois of Lowell; his adoring nieces and nephews, Abigail, Jacob, and Matthew Zegowitz of Westford, Julia Prestipino of Lowell, and Jack and Max Frediani of Lowell. Michael is also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends.

“ Mike, your smile, your laughter, and positive attitude will always be with us and never forgotten; you always knew how to turn everyone's frown upside down. Sorry I couldn't be there tonight to say "see you again someday" but I know you will always be with us either helping us sing at karaoke or at a Kenny Chesney concert. Miss you always!!!

“ *Diane, Jackie, all the family, all the kids.....
My heart goes out to you all. I know how special Michael was to all of you. You have had your share of sorrow and then some, and I cry for you.
You know if you need anything, you only need to call.
God Bless.

“ I text my son today at college and asked; did you know Michael Dubios from Lowell High school?
His reply: Yes, he was my teacher as a junior for english. He's kinda why I liked english class and thats why I wanted to become a teacher.
After I told him of his passing this is what he had to say:
He was a great teacher. Always excited in class and because he was younger he really connected with the kids personally and individually. Always into hiking and outdoor sports, Just a great guy who really made an impact on my life.
My reply: Make him proud that he was a teacher.... YOUR TEACHER!
Michael, thank you for the gift of learning you gave to my son. I hope he becomes as great a teacher as you were.

You are in my thoughts and prayers,
Stephanie Newton

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Mike when we served on Jury Duty together. Not knowing our "South Lowell" connection, and that he worked with my brother at LHS, we quickly became friends during our long service. Mike made an otherwise difficult experience enjoyable with his great sense of humor, his infectious smile, and our often exact shared thoughts on the juror experience and process. He spoke so highly of his entire family, especially his nieces and nephews, whom he told countless hilarious and sweet stories about. I remember him being excited about cooking Thanksgiving Dinner for his big family that year too, so we shared recipes with each other and spent our next day in court sharing our holiday stories.

Even though I knew him for a short period of time, Mike made a very dear impression on me. He was friendly and thoughtful to everyone we served with, and had a smile that really did light up the room. I am grateful to have had the opportunity to know Mike, and I will never forget him. To his family and friends, I hope that the many fond memories you have of Mike will soon fill the void left in your hearts.

My deepest care and sympathy are with you all at this difficult time.

Sincerely,

I was just looking up an old art teacher I had and found a teacher found dead article. I can't believe it. It's like I was just looking at him. All the girls in my school liked him haha itching to go to English class. He was very handsome and kind and loved his job
