

Mr. Oscar Pena

October 22, 1976 - March 2, 2024

OSCAR PENA

March 2, 2024, Oscar Pena, 47, of Lowell, MA, passed away at home, after a short yet powerful battle with cancer, surrounded by his family and close friends.

Oscar's passing leaves a tremendous void in our hearts and although we are deeply saddened that he is not physically here with us, we know he is in a better place, free of pain, happy, and in peace.

We are forever proud of the endurance Oscar had throughout. Always with an amazing outlook on life, remaining hopeful, faithful, and fighting to the very end.

Oscar is known for a plethora of things but first and foremost, his devotion to his family and friends.

To name a few: great domino player, fantastic 'chef', huge NY Yankees fan, and an even bigger one of his favorite Bachata singer, Romeo Santos. Many can attest to that, I'm sure.

Oscar's life was a testament to the power of love, resilience, and strength in the face of adversity. He approached each day with unwavering courage and a fierce determination to provide a better life for his family. His kindness, generosity, and infectious laughter touched the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Oscar was predeceased by his father, Jose Pena, and brother, Henry Pena.

Oscar is survived by his three children:

Oscar Pena, Miles Pena, and Jayla Pena.

Ex wife: Joanna Rivera. Girlfriend: Marisol Colon.

Mother: Antonia Alicea, Step-Father: Orlando Gomez.

Sisters: Carmen Torres, Norma Pena-Peterson, Glendaliz Pena, Damaris Gomez, Amarilis Gomez.

Brothers: Jose Jr., Jose Luis Pena, Daniel Pena.

Nephews and nieces

“ My dear friend, my brother, although I will miss you I have enough knowledge and faith in God to know that you will enter the kingdom of heaven. You will be reunited with my sister, Lucy, and any other loved ones who left before you. This world is not ours, it is a temporary exile for us and so you are home. We will miss you until we have our turn to go home. Te amo💙

“ My name is Carmen, Oscar’s oldest sister. I sit here with an aching heart, while holding back tears.

Oscar, whose untimely departure has left an indelible void in our lives. Today, I want to honor his memory, celebrate his life, and share the deep impact he had on all who knew him. Never going to forget Oscar’s contagious smile, his sense of humor and how his presence was like a beacon of light, brightening the lives of everyone he encountered.

Oscar’s absence is a reminder of the fragility of life and the enduring impact of the bonds we form. We mourn not just the loss of a brother but the passing of a son, father, uncle, nephew, friend, and a cherished member of our family. We bid farewell to my beloved brother, Oscar, we do so with sadness. We are grateful for the time we shared, the memories we created, and the love he gave freely. In his memory, let us cherish the moments we had and continue to live by the values he held dearly.

The day before Oscar’s passing, he asked me for a big hug, who would have thought that would be our last; I come to realize that life is unpredictable.

I want to express my gratitude for all the people who have supported us during this most difficult time. Proverbs 17:17 “A true friend shows love at all times and is a brother who is born for times of distress”.

As we say our last goodbye to Oscar, we do so with heavy hearts, but also with a profound appreciation for the time we were granted with him. We celebrate his life, and the unending love he bestowed upon us.

In closing, I am reminded of Philemon 1:15 “Perhaps this is really why he broke away for a short while, so that you (we) may have him back forever”, words that resonate deeply with the essence of Oscar’s life. Today, we honor a life filled with laughter, love, and kindness – a life that will continue to inspire and guide us in the days to come.
