

Mrs. Ossie "Cookie" Buote

January 31, 1936 - February 13, 2023

Ossie "Cookie" Buote

Beloved Wife, Mother, and Grandmother and Great Grandmother

LOWELL—Ossie Mary "Cookie" Buote, 87, passed away peacefully at her home on Monday, February 13, 2023. She was the loving wife of George W. Buote who passed away September 23, 2022.

Ossie was born in Morganton, North Carolina on January 31, 1936, the daughter of Zachariah and Mary Cook. She was a graduate of Westford Academy.

Cookie married George Buote on September 11, 1954 in Westford, while George was still serving in the Navy. They moved to Lowell and lived on Bourne St. then State St. before settling into their longtime family home on Juniper St. Cookie was a parishioner of St. Marie's Church, now Holy Family Parish. She was involved in the parish and was a Eucharistic Minister and taught CCD for many years.

Prior to her retirement, Cookie was employed as a Nurse's Aide at Sunny Acres Nursing Home. Cookie and George loved to travel all over the United States and to Aruba, but especially loved the White Mountains. George adored Cookie and they did everything together, and if you saw one you saw the other! She was a great cook and had many famous recipes that she was known for.

Cookie's passion was her family. She loved her family and adored her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Cookie is survived by her children, George Buote, Jr., David Buote and his wife Susan, Richard Buote and his girlfriend Susan Ramsden, and Christopher Buote and his wife Crystal; five grandchildren, Donald Dean Jr., Amanda Dean, Samantha DeCoursey, Katelyn White, and Shawn Poissant; 5 great grandchildren; 1 great great grandson and her sister Carol Korsak.

Cookie was the mother of the late Mary Ellen Buote who died on August 31, 2002 and grandmother of the late Jaime Dean who died on April 22, 2018.

She was also the sister of the late Marvin Cook and Emma Waters.
