“ I'm so sorry for the late message and loss. My deepest condolences to the family and close friends of dear Mrs. Fitz. Mrs. Fitz was my music teacher at LHS. She humorously gave me the nickname "shorty" due to how tall I was. Interestingly, she was a student of my late godfather (Dr. John Ogasapian of UMass Lowell). I wasn't the greatest keyboard player, but Mrs. Fitz encouraged me that true effort pays off. May she rest in perfect peace

God Bless

“ My most profound condolences to The Fitzpatrick family. Mrs. Fitzpatrick was my loving teacher at the Roger's School in the late 70's. She was such a caring person, and one of my inspirations to become a teacher. I was also privileged to have her as my colleague at Lowell High School in the mid 90's. She will forever be in my heart❤️ Rest in heavenly Peace my dear Pat.

“ Pat and I grew up in the same neighborhood and used to play paper dolls for hours when we were in elementary school. We slept over each other's houses and I loved her mother's pancakes (that I learned later were crapes) . Lovely memories of my "sister" as we called one another. Will miss her and things won't be the same without getting a call from her and telling each other silly stories of our childhood. My deepest condolences to her family. She spoke of them often with so much love. Rest In Peace my dear friend. Diane Richards Way

“ My condolences to the family. A very fond memory..... As Board Members, we would spend days together during Lowell Folk Festival. We'd settle in to the Hotel's registration desk, checking in all the performers , technicians, band members , crew and staff. Oh my, how "Fitzie" (as we called Pat), LOVED doing that. She would get right up there and dance away with the best ! I will miss her so much! RIP my friend!

“ Dear Pat,
I have been missing you and our little chats every afternoon about what we were going to watch on TV. Of course we talked about how wonderful our children are and about the pleasure our Grandchildren bring us. You will be missed more and more as time passes, but I know there were lots of souls waiting with open arms to welcome you through the pearly gates. So happy to have known you and shared many family get togethers in the past. Much love to all. Nell
