

Mrs. Pearl A. Kluck

January 1, 1927 - October 19, 2012

Pearl A. Kluck

Loving Mother, Grandmother, and Friend

LOWELL—Pearl Antoinette (Brown) Kluck, a resident of the Highlands Neighborhood, passed away unexpectedly on Friday morning, October 19, 2012 at Lowell General Hospital. She was 85 years old. She was the wife of the late John Kluck.

Pearl was born in Lowell on January 1, 1927, a daughter of the late Joseph and Ann (Reed) Brown. Educated in the Lowell Schools, Pearl was a member of the Lowell High School graduating class of 1946. Pearl worked for many years at the Educator Biscuit Co. in Lowell. She later became a LPN and retired from the former Saint John's Hospital.

Pearl was a very happy and loving person. She was able to find the good in everyone. Pearl lived for her family and was always known for lots of hugs and kisses. Some of her hobbies included taking pictures, bowling, and playing Bingo. She was a huge Pats fan and Sox fan. Second only to her family were her many dear friends which she visited with at the Salvation Army. She lived for her daily attendance there and maintained lasting friendships.

Surviving Pearl are her loving children, Virginia A. Hoar of Lowell, James Kluck of Florida, Nancy R. Chang of New York, and Thomas P. Kluck of Lowell; her four adoring grandchildren, Jessica Oar, April A. Robillard, Stephanie L. Chang and Sara Pearl Chang; her two great grandchildren, Malachi Montero and Bella Pearl Mohammed; and her nieces and nephew, Karen Kidawalski, Carol Cannon, and Edward Kidawalski. Mrs. Kluck was the sister of the late Frances Kidawalski and Marion Boyle.
