Peter F. Martin

Loving family man and friend to many

LOWELL--Peter F. Martin, 55 of Lowell died on Saturday, July 11, 2015 at Lowell General Hospital. He was surrounded by his family.

Peter was born, lived, and died in Lowell. He was the son of Rodger F. Martin of Lowell and the late Katherine (Bailey) Martin of Lowell.

Peter was educated in the Lowell public schools, graduating with honors from Lowell High School in 1978. He led his football and baseball teams as a quarterback and catcher and was elected to the LHS Athletics Hall of Fame. He continued to Trinity College, where he majored in economics and excelled on the football and baseball fields, including being honored as an All-American in baseball. Later in his career he returned to school, completing the Harvard University's Advanced Management Program in 2002.

Peter started his career at a young age and took great pride in his professional growth. He worked hard, thrived on challenges, and was a natural-born leader who cared deeply about the colleagues who worked for and with him. In a three-decade career, he worked for Procter & Gamble, Gallo Wine, Brachs, Welch's, The Beacon Group and Xenith. He was most proud of his tenure with Welch's, where he spent the majority of his career across the sales, marketing, and operations departments and advanced to the executive level.

He was a beloved husband, son, father, grandfather, brother, son-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, uncle and friend to many. Peter was devoted to his family and he was happiest when surrounded by the people he loved, telling stories, cooking, and filling his home with laughter. He was incredibly generous and was always the first to step forward in a crisis.

Peter is survived by his wife of 34 years, high school sweetheart, and best friend, Lainey (Neylon) Martin, and his four children and their spouses: Peter and Andrea Martin of Lowell, Kara and Jason Koch of Media, PA, James Martin of Lowell, and Robert Martin and Brittany Descoteaux of Chelmsford. He was also the proud grandfather of Hazel Koch of Media, PA, and Jack Martin of Lowell. He treasured every minute that he had with each of them.

He was the youngest of seven children and is survived by Rodger and Linda Martin of Southbury CT, Kathy and Forrest Whitaker of Lake Forest IL, Brian and Elise Martin of Lowell, Elizabeth and Kerry McNamara of Osterville MA and David and Melissa Martin of York Maine. His brother James Martin of Lowell pre-deceased him in 1995.

Peter had a special relationship with his mother-in-law, Mary Neylon of Lowell. His father-in-law Thomas Neylon pre-deceased him in 2006. He is also survived by Cathi and Mark O'Malley of Lowell, Tom and Jennifer Neylon of Manhasset, NY, Frank and Kathy Neylon of Chelmsford, and Mo Neylon and Ted McNamara of Chicago.

Peter came from a large family and had many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins that he cared deeply about.

His family loves him, misses him, and will always be incredibly proud of the strongest man they ever knew.

“ One tough shit. I was a year behind Peter at Trinity. I played football and baseball with him. He was the toughest of all the Lowell kids that came to Trinity, and there were a lot. Hadn't seen him since he graduated. I read Mike Foye's comment on Peter's performance his last football game his senior year when we were losing to Wesleyan with very little time left in game. I was in the huddle when Peter came onto the field. He swaggered in like he always did. Then he does his "popeye" imitation and says something like "let's have us some fun boys". He then drives us down the field and finally hits Tank Mac with a hail mary that ends the game. Classic Peter Martin.

“ Peter had a rocket for an arm and the heart of a lion. Most of all he was a steady and true friend on whom you could always trust. He was a leader and great teammate. It's sad to see him go so early but his legacy endures. My deepest condolences to his Family.

Yours sincerely,

Todd

“ I played football with Peter at Trinity. We were both quarterbacks. Peter's senior year at Trin was met with an injury early in the season. (broken jaw) Peter stayed with the team and helped coach.

To start the last week of the season (Wesleyan Week) the seniors went to the coaching staff and asked if Peter could practice with the team so he could experience college football one more time. There was no guarantee that Peter would play.

During the game, the offense struggled a bit and in the second half Peter was inserted into the line up to jump start the offense. In the 4th quarter - Peter marched the team down the field and threw a touchdown pass to win the game! Last game, senior year, homecoming crowd watching the effort!!!

We will miss Peter Martin. Condolences to the extended Martin Family.

Sincerely,

Michael Foye

“ I played football with Peter at Trinity. He was a fierce competitor and a great leader. I remember him injuring his knee, having surgery and returning to play a week or so later. Peter was a tough kid but had an engaging personality that made him someone you wanted to spend time with. I considered him a friend but only saw him a few years ago at a Trinity Football game when he spoke about his business manufacturing football helmets and his kids. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends.
