Rachel R. Carney

Loving Daughter, Mother, and Sister

LOWELL—Rachel Renee (Bowzer) Carney passed away Saturday evening, January 19, 2013, at Lowell General's Saints Campus, following a brief illness. She was 41 years old.

Rachel was born in Lowell on August 29, 1971, a daughter of Corrine Wiitala of Lowell and Arnold Bowzer of Lowell, who both survive her. She attended the Sacred Heart School and was a graduate of the Greater Lowell Vocational School. Rachel also attended Roger Williams College to study Nursing. Rachel worked in the local nursing homes as a nurse's aide. Rachel loved the beach. She also enjoyed reading. Most of all, Rachel enjoyed spending time with her family.

Surviving Rachel are her mother, Corrine Wiitala and Joseph Scrima of Lowell; her father, Arnold Bower of Lowell; her children, Melissa Carney of Lowell, Jeremy Carney of Haverhill, and Matthew Bowzer of Dracut; her brothers and sisters, Tammy Hegarty and her husband Bob of Townsend, Laura Bowzer of Dracut, Dion Bowzer and Cindy Johnson of Lowell, and Shane Bowzer of Quincy; her fiancé, Redger "Reggie" Hennah of Lowell; one grandson, Noah Arcand; her grandmother, Kathryn Duguie, and several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and her dear friends, Patty Stickney and Robert Stephen.

Rachel was the granddaughter of the late Louis Duguie, and John and Manerva Cowles.
