

Mr. Raul Davila

July 26, 1971 - March 2, 2015

Raul Davila

Raul Davila, was a loving Father, Son, Brother, and Uncle, who God chose to take to His peaceful Kingdom of Heaven at the age of 43. Raul was born in Hartford CT, to Father Francisco Davila and Mother Isabel Ruiz, he also shared his life with his siblings, Luis, Luz, José, Fernando, Francisca, and Mariluz Davila . Enduring the unfortunate passing of his mother at the age of 6, he later made his life with his family in Lowell, MA. At the age of 13 he developed a passion for B Boying with his best friends Qbee, and Manolo in the "Lowell Master Crew". Later at the age of 20 years old Raul and Xiomara introduce his one and only princess Kiomarie into this world. Raul built a solid, loving, emotionally connected, and trusting relationship with his "Princess". He never undermined his daughter's feelings, thoughts, and perspective in life; as they always mattered and had value to him. Raul taught and instilled values to Kiomarie that GOD and FAMILY are everything.

Raul was a licensed Chef and was on his way to get his degree in Business. Raul endured many challenges and struggles in life that played a role in him helping motivate and promote positive changes in others.

He was also a public speaker for substance abuse. His mission in life was to save lives, enjoy time with his family, and serve the Lord. It is a great loss to have a big hearted, charismatic, loving person like Raul leave this world. But it is also a blessing to know we will see him again one day...He is also leaving behind nieces, Isabel, Elizabeth, Emily, Amalis, Kaylani, Michelle and nephews, James, Ryan, and Joshua. Many Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, as well as his step children Ernesto, Dilaida, Kiara, and many loved ones who he held close to his heart. We will miss him very much...

Raul Davila - Passed away in Boston, March 2, 2015.

“ I still can't believe you're gone...I still remember when we all lived together and how you would defend me from others bullying because of my glasses... Even tho we lived in different cities it would only take for ya to be in the same room to make fun of everybody! Oh Raul how I still remember laughing with you in Maris house and you laughing as I was making fun of our nieces husbands....I will forever treasure our memories especially that one because that was the last time that two men whom I loved dearly were in the same room alive....you and my hubby Luis....May he greet you at the gates and you hug him dearly and tell him how much I miss him too... Love always, your step sister Evie ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ I love you and miss you Daddy. You are the first man I ever feel in love with. You taught me so much about life, I will forever remember all our memories together. From the time you gave me "Mr.Bunny" in 98, to all the letters and cards you sent me, to you teaching me how to drive for the first time, to me living with you and you taking care of me when I got my wisdom teeth, the countless times we spent laughing... I can't believe you gone...

But I know one day I will see you again. Until then I'll keep making you proud.

I love you
