Raymond Matos

Loving Father, Grandfather, Brother

LOWELL—Raymond Matos, 81, passed away peacefully at his home, April 6, 2018, surrounded by his loving family.

Raymond was the longtime companion of Emelia Lopez of Lowell.

Raymond was born in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico on March 6, 1937, a son of the late Mario Matos and Maria Perez.

He came to the United States in the 1950's, living in New York before settling in Lowell. He was employed in local nursing homes as a kitchen assistant and dishwasher.

Raymond loved Dominos. He loved to sing and you could always hear him singing. He loved bread, from a young age, because his father was a baker in Puerto Rico. He was well known as a washer machine and dryer repairman. He loved to fix things. Raymond was a very good father and always loved giving his children things. He enjoyed walking as a hobby. Raymond will be remembered as a caring and hospitable man, always looking out for everyone.

In addition to Emelia, Raymond is survived by his children, Raymond Matos, Maria Rodrigues, Mario Matos, Margarita Matos, and Ana Berrios; 12 grandchildren; 40 great grandchildren; his brother, Francisco Matos and his wife Carmen; his sister, Carmen Benitez; and several nieces and nephews.

Raymond was the father of the late Rafael Matos and brother of the late Luz McFaline, Margie Matos, and Mercedes Morales. Mr. Matos's family would like to offer a special thanks to Carmen Benitez and Marta Raramillo, his PCA's and his VNA Nurse Faith for the special care and love shown to Raymond.
