

Mr. Robert J. Zullo

September 11, 1955 - March 15, 2021

Robert J. Zullo

Loving Father, Son, Papa, Brother

LOWELL—Robert J. “Bob” Zullo, 65, passed away unexpectedly on March 15, 2021, at a local nursing home. He was the loving father of Michelle Zullo Greenan.

Robert was born in Somerville on September 11, 1955, a son of Margaret (Postizzi) Zullo of Somerville, who survives him, and the late D. Francis Zullo. He was educated in Somerville and was a graduate of Somerville High School. He had been an Auxiliary Police Officer for the City of Somerville.

For many years, Bob was employed with Fleet Bank as a Branch Manager, then later at Sentry Insurance.

Bob enjoyed playing racquetball and bowling. He enjoyed reading the newspaper everyday, and he was a great collector of many things.

Bob was a family guy, and a lovingly devoted father to his only daughter, Michelle. He was always present at all of her sporting events and school functions. He enjoyed taking Michelle to Bruins games, as she was a competitive hockey player herself. They enjoyed traveling on family trips.

As his two grandsons Braedyn and Tristyn grew, he was there for all of their sports games. He loved being their Papa.

Bob enjoyed the holidays, and loved decorating accordingly, especially for Christmastime. Bob was always there when his family needed him.

Bob is survived by his daughter, Michelle Zullo Greenan and her husband Matthew Greenan of Lowell; his mother, Margaret Zullo of Somerville; his two grandsons, Braedyn Greenan and Tristyn Greenan; his brother Ronald Zullo and his wife Marie; and his sister, Linda Zullo. Bob also leaves nieces, nephews, and several close friends. Bob was the brother of the late John Zullo.

I am very sorry to hear about Bob's Passing. I have many memories, especially playing a game of racquetball when I would zig zag the ball off the walls and Bob had no idea where it was going. He stood there with that grin on his face and looked at me as to say "Really" :0) RIP Bob “ *Bob, Even though we havent shared a lot of family times recently, due to family issues and our health, you will always be remembered as a loving brother and uncle. The last time you, my children, johnny and I shared a meal, it was full of laughs and fun. Your apartment was nice and cozy. I will treaure that day for ever. Love linda, billy ,tommy and jimmy

Rest now. I am sure i will be seeing you soon.
