

Mr. Ronald G. Nigro

August 5, 1939 - February 13, 2011

Ronald G. Nigro

Lowell resident, Navy Veteran

LOWELL—Ronald George Nigro, 71, a Lowell resident for the past 20 years, passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, February 13, 2011 at Saints Medical Center. Ron was born in Boston on August 5, 1939, a son of the late Giro and Gilda (Imbrici) Nigro. He attended Boston schools and was a graduate of the College of the Holy Cross. Ron was employed for many years in the family business, the United Paper Company of East Boston.

A proud Veteran of the United States Navy, Ron served aboard the USS Lowry.

Ron enjoyed attending museums and had an appreciation for fine works of art. He had a passion for reading and was a frequent patron of the Pollard Memorial Library. Ron enjoyed good food, especially Italian Food. Ron was a very friendly, social man who made many friends during his time in Lowell. He was a proud member of the Lowell Veteran's Community Center for many years. For the past 20 years, Ron had been a resident of the Cunningham Community Care Home, where he leaves many dear friends.

Ron's survivors include a brother, Jerry Nigro and a sister, Barbara Nigro, both of Florida, and a niece, Shylah Nigro of New Hampshire. Ron loved his family and his close friends at the Cunningham Community Care Home very much.
