

Ronald J. Salukas

October 8, 1953 - April 5, 2011

Ronald J. Salukas

“Saluky”

LOWELL—Ronald John “Ron” Salukas, 57, a Belvidere resident, passed away unexpectedly at his home on April 5, 2011.

Ron was born in Lowell on October 8, 1953, a son of the late John Salukas and Theresa (Gendron) Goudreau. He grew up in the Centralville neighborhood and was a graduate of St. Michael’s Grammar School and Lowell High School. At the time of his death, Ron was employed as a truck driver with Baker Commodities in N. Billerica, for whom he drove for many years. A proud member of Teamsters Union Local 170, Ron served as a Union Steward. Ron loved the “Blues” and playing his harmonica. As a band member, he was affectionately known as “Ronny Cash.”

“Saluky” to his friends, Ron was an avid outdoorsman, hunter, and fisherman. He loved being outside in nature’s midst.

Ron is survived by his sister, Linda (Salukas) Gauthier-Bailey of Lowell; three brothers, Richard Goudreau, Gerard Goudreau, and Raymond Goudreau; also several nieces, nephews, and many, many dear friends.

“ Saluky loved to make people laugh, often at his own expense. As long as you were laughing that's all he cared about.

And when he got on a roll, Mikey (you know who you are) would beg "Somebody make him stop ... Somebody please make him stop!"

Keith Samborski - April 16, 2011 at 04:59 PM

“ I will always remeber how you like music and playing the Harmonica. I will miss you my friend.

Joyce Rondeau - April 10, 2011 at 10:40 AM

“ Rest in Peace Ronnie. I hope everyone can take comfort knowing as sad as it is to lose you, you will be reunited with many other family members who will welcome you with open arms.

Always keep his memories in your heart. Always talk about him and he will always be alive. He is an Angel in Heaven now but he hasn't left you. He is looking down on you and guiding you through life.
