

Mr. Saúl Montoya

November 12, 1936 - February 14, 2015

OBITUARY

Saúl Montoya

Beloved Father, Grandfather, and Great Grandfather

Saúl Montoya lived in Lowell for many years, before retiring to Medellin, Colombia. Saúl was born in Bello, Colombia, on November 12, 1936. Mr. Montoya immigrated to the United States in 1969 after accepting a job offer from owners of one of the mills in Lowell. Mill owners often traveled to Colombia to find skilled technicians and offered the selected few, work, a permanent residency in the United States, and a chance to bring their families. Mr. Montoya worked in several states throughout New England, (Connecticut, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire) before settling in Lowell, Massachusetts in the early 1970's. Soon after, in 1974, his wife and four sons followed.

Mr. Montoya retired in the early 1990's and chose to move back to his hometown in Medellin, Colombia. He passed away peacefully on February 14, 2015 after experiencing complications with an illness.

Saúl was married to the late Maria Magnolia Montoya Zuleta, who passed away in 1984, and is survived by his four sons, Orlando Montoya and Uriel Montoya of Florida, Edgar Montoya of New York, and Elkin Montoya of Lowell. He was presently married to Resfa Ortega-Montoya, of Medellin. Saul is also survived by his eight grandchildren, Tahina L. Montoya, Jennifer Montoya, Kevin S. Montoya, Steven Montoya, Matthew Montoya, Marcelo N. Montoya, Mario A. Montoya, and Magnolia Montoya, as well as three great-grandchildren, Michael Regan-Montoya, Brandy Montoya, and Leandro O. Vargas-Montoya.
