All across America, this tragedy has left us wondering how in an instant, children and staff could be stripped of the basic right to attend school and be safe from harm. It is a vulnerability and an injustice that no one should have to endure.

The reality is that there are 26 families in our neighboring state that are in fact enduring this surreal event.

FAY McCABE FUNERAL HOME, 105 MOORE STREET, LOWELL, MA will be open to all from 8A.M. until 7P.M. on Wednesday, December 19, 2012. During this time you are welcome to sign a Book of Remembrance, which will be delivered to the Sandy Hook Community, say a prayer, or quietly reflect. It is our intention to honor the lives of the children and staff of the Sandy Hook Elementary School with a prayer service at 7 P.M. All ages are welcome. Join with us as we continue to pray for and remember those who died, the families affected, and their community.

Donations in memory of those who were lost may be made to The Sandy Hook School Support Fund, c/o Newtown Savings Bank, 39 Main Street, Newtown, CT 06470 or online at <https://newtown.uwwesternct.org>.

Lord our God,

You are always faithful and quick to show mercy.

These children were suddenly and violently taken from us.

Come swiftly to their aid, have mercy on them,

and comfort their family and friends

by the power and protection of the cross.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen

“ To all of the parents of lost loves in this beyond horrific tragedy, I am a dad myself of a kindergarten and 1st grader and for the last few days of picking up my boys after school I cry every time I go thinking of your pain and what you have gone through and continue to do so. I pray for all of you, and have asked my grandparents that have long passed on to watch over your children in heaven for they are my rocks and great people up there. Your children deserve no less. I realize there is nothing I can say that will ease your pain and I have never met any of you, but as a parent I offer my strength to you, and may god bless each and everyone of you in your time of need. If you ever need to reach out please do even if you need to cry, my email is theboys.hackett0@Gmail.com. god speed and god bless, my most sincere condolences, brian hackett
