SARA GARDNER

Loving Mother of 6, Grandmother of 2

Sara Gardner, 43, passed away on Sunday, July 20, 2025, at her home, surrounded by her loving family.

Sara was born in Lowell on July 8, 1982, a daughter of Patricia Gardner who survives her. She attended Lowell Schools and after graduating from high school she continued at Middlesex Community College to further her education. Sara was employed for many years as a C.N.A. at Personal Touch of Chelmsford. Prior to that, she was employed At UTEC as a director's assistant.

Sara was a very loving, giving person. She loved all things cooking, and watching her favorite shows on the Cooking Channel.

When she was younger, Sara enjoyed playing softball and won many trophies playing. She enjoyed going to the beach, cookouts, and trying her luck at Bingo with her sister. Sara loved to play Bingo, all over MA and NH. Local trips with the kids to fun places like Canobie Lake and Water County were always favorites. She enjoyed the holidays, and any family time spent with her kids and grandkids.

Sara is survived by her children, Natanyishya Rondon, Yaleana Figueroa, Laniya Figueroa, Rafael J. Figueroa, and twins J'Naylee Figueroa and Rafael A. Figueroa; her two grandchildren Xavien and Legend; her two sisters, Lisa Taylor and her husband David Taylor, and Joanne Rodriguez; many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews including Amy Anderson and her husband Jason and great nephew Zander, and Damion Taylor and his wife Sara Taylor and great nephew Cole; also cousins and dear friends, including Cassie St.Pierre. Sara was also the longtime partner of Rafael Figueroa.

FAMILY AND FRIENDS ARE INVITED TO ATTEND SARA'S FUNERAL SERVICES ON THURSDAY MORNING: VISITING HOURS FROM 10 AM UNTIL 12 NOON. FUNERAL PRAYER SERVICE AT 12 NOON, FOLLOWED BY HER BURIAL IN WESTLAWN II CEMETERY, LOWELL.
