Sarah A. Dunn

Loving Mother and Grandmother

Immaculate Conception Parishioner

LOWELL—Sarah A. (O'Hare) Dunn, a Belvidere resident, and the beloved wife of the late Dr. Walter S. Dunn, passed away on Thursday, August 2, 2012 at Tufts Medical Center in Boston. She was 93 years old.

Sarah was born in Lowell on February 24, 1919, the only child of the late John P. and Cora (Ahearn) O'Hare. Educated in the Lowell schools, Sarah was a 1936 graduate of Lowell High School. Throughout her working career, Sarah was employed as a claims representative with the Unemployment office in Lowell, and later as a tax examiner with the IRS in Andover. She retired in 1975.

Mrs. Dunn was a parishioner of the Immaculate Conception Church. She enjoyed traveling in her younger days. She loved to read, attend plays, and take trips to Maine. She also enjoyed attending and watching line dancing with her daughter.

Most of all, Mrs. Dunn loved spending time and enjoying her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Surviving Mrs. Dunn are her son, James P. Dunn of Amesbury; her three daughters, Mary Margaret Underhill of Plantation, FL, Kathleen A. Dunn, and Eileen E. Dunn, both of Lowell; her two grandchildren, Jon P. Underhill and his wife Lauren of Plantation, FL, and Kathryn A. Underhill of Davie, FL; her two great grandchildren, Sawyer Underhill and Jameson Underhill; her first cousin, Patricia Laflamme of Lowell, and her niece, Patricia Autencio of Oakdale, CT.
