“ Just learning of Scott's passing...in shock still. I met Scott while looking for a sewing company and after 4 different ones loved working with him at Lowell Sewing 5 years ago. He helped me with prototypes for many products I have since patented. He was a great guy, loved his laugh. Always loved hearing about his stories with the band and crazy weekends, his damn truck, always talked and appreciated his room mate. Always good for a laugh. RIP Scott!!

“ Scott & i met at a very young age. He was 15 & i was 16. After being a couple after 9 years, we were married. We were eachothers first love. We had a lot of great times throughout the years. Always a fun time when we did anything.from going out to clubs when he played out to just staying home on a rainy day watching some of our favorate movies.. I have so many wonderful memories to cherish. I will keep those memories close to my heart.You will be forever missed.,
