“ "The most beautiful people we have known are those who have known defeat, known suffering, known struggle, known loss, and have found their way out of the depths. These persons have an appreciation, a sensitivity, and an understanding of life that fills them with compassion, gentleness, and a deep loving concern. Beautiful people do not just happen."

“ Shaland, words will do no justice to the strength and courage you had to endure. Anywhere at anytime you could change a frowned face or bad day with your smile and your welcoming advise. Your heart and soul was a reflection of the type of person that we should wish to be. I will miss you dearly and think of you often. I love you fam... Ya Allāh! to You we come from and to You is our return. Allow us to see your face in paradise. Ameen!

“ Shaland was such a wonderful young man with a true passion for life, he was one who always asked why?
Never bitter and excepted his challenges with open arms.
The last time we talked he touched my heart with his strength and desire.
I will never forget this kid, he was part of my family and was loved dearly.
Never stop asking why.

“ Man shay we go way back from the Adams and Lagrange Street days. I remember the cyphers between you, Corey, Craig and hakim. My heart is broken for your family. A good friend/man gone far too son my brother. My deepest condolences to your family, friends and loved ones. My thoughts and prayers go out to you, your family, friends and loved ones. May god give them strength. I am so sorry Shay. You will live on in my heart forever. I always say to my fam, the realest friends come from the old school era and you exemplified that my dear friend. 🙏🌹❤️💔😭. I will never forget you. Your friend forever. David Comalli.
