

Miss Tracy Ann Boudreau

November 17, 1970 - November 26, 2010

Tracy Ann Boudreau

Loving Daughter, Sister, Aunt & Friend

LOWELL—Tracy Ann Boudreau, 40, a lifelong resident of Lowell, passed away suddenly on Nov. 26, 2010 at Saints Medical Center with her family by her side. Tracy was born in Lowell on Nov. 17, 1970, a daughter of Ernest and Lorraine (Langlois) Boudreau of Lowell, who both survive her.

Tracy was employed for most of her life in the culinary arts as a chef and cook. She was an active member of “Matter of Fact,” an educational improve troupe which gives a voice to controversial issues in the hopes of making a difference in the community.

Tracy devoted much of her time to her nieces and nephews, Joshua Higson, Sebastian Nash, Kira Nash, Aiden Jonas, Kerry Ann Jonas, Autumn Nash, and Ian Jonas, for whom she had a special affinity. They were her pride and joy!

In addition to her parents Lorraine Boudreau and Ernest Boudreau, Sr., Tracy is survived by her brother, Ernest Boudreau, Jr. and sisters, Lorrie (Boudreau) Jonas and her husband Jarrad, and Maria (Boudreau) Nash and her husband Jeremy; also many extended nieces and nephews in the Nash and Jonas Families.

Family and friends may call at the FAY McCABE FUNERAL HOME, 105 MOORE STREET, LOWELL, on THURSDAY MORNING from 9:30 – 11:30 A.M. Tracy's Funeral Mass will follow at 12 Noon at HOLY FAMILY PARISH – ST. MARIE'S CHURCH, corner of Chamberlain and Grafton Sts. Lowell. Burial in Westlawn Cemetery. As an expression of sympathy, donations in Tracy's memory may be given to her sister, Maria Nash, to offset some of her burial expenses.
