VASILIKI KARALIS BAOUTIS

Beloved wife, mother, and grandmother

LOWELL—Vasiliki (Karalis) Baoutis, 81, passed away on Tuesday, October 24, 2017 at Lowell General's Saints Campus. She was the beloved wife of Spyridon Baoutis. Vasiliki was born in Kastraki, Greece on January 22, 1936, a daughter of the late Athanasios and Leonora Karalis. Vasiliki came to the United States in 1970. Prior to her retirement, she was employed as a stitcher with Joan Fabrics.

Vasiliki was a wonderful and loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She loved nothing more than spending time with her family. She loved and adored her grandchildren more than anything. Vasiliki was a great cook and baker, who found pleasure in preparing and sharing meals with her family. Knitting and crocheting were some of her favorite things to do. She loved spending time in her garden, and took pride in her beautiful roses. Vasiliki was the heart and soul of her family. Her passing has left a huge void in their lives. She was loved more than can be expressed with words. She will be forever missed and never forgotten. May her memory be eternal.

Vasiliki is survived by her husband Spyridon; her two sons, Peter Baoutis, and Arthur Baoutis and his wife Gladys Santiago; three grandchildren, Arthur Baoutis, Jr., Peter Baoutis, and Vasiliki Baoutis.
