

Mrs. Vigdalia Medina

April 21, 1950 - May 20, 2026

VIGDALIA MEDINA

Today, we honor and remember my mother, a woman of incredible strength, love, and faith. She devoted her life to her family and was the heart of so many lives. As a mother of 16 children, she gave endlessly of herself, always putting her family first and making sure we felt loved, supported, and cared for.

She was not only a loving mother but also a proud grandmother and great grandmother whose warmth, wisdom, and kindness touched generations. Her home, her prayers, and her presence brought comfort to everyone around her.

Above all, she was a woman of deep faith. Through every joy and every hardship, she trusted God and carried herself with grace and resilience. Her faith guided her life and inspired those who knew her.

Although our hearts are broken by this loss, we find comfort in knowing that her love will continue to live on through her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and everyone blessed enough to know her.

Rest peacefully, Mom. Your love, your faith, and your legacy will never be forgotten.

Vigdalia is survived by her children, Edwin, Tony, Alberto, Heriberto, Francisco, Jacqueline, Jeannette, Yessica, Vanessa, Eliza, Yessenia, Brenda, Mildred, Katy, and Jonathan; Vigdalia was the mother of the late Sonia Noemi. She was also a mother to her grandkids, Edwin (Goldo) and Silvia, 71 grandkids, and over 60 great grandkids. Vigdalia is also survived by her brothers and sisters, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

“ I don't think there can ever be enough words in the dictionary to describe the impact Vigdalia made in my life. From encouraging me to sing when I was a little girl at church, to the loving warmth she filled me with whenever she saw me as an adult, no matter the length of time that had passed. Im thankful for the friend she was to my mami. For giving her someone to confide in, and to walk through the faith journey with. The humility, grace, love, faith, and strength she embodied will live on and she will be terribly missed. May she rest in the sweetest of peace, in the arms of the father, and alongside her beloved husband and daughter whom I know she missed so much. May her newfound angel wings wrap all her family in love as they navigate this loss.❤️
I love you forever Vigdalia❤�
