

Mr. William Abreu Galan

February 11, 1940 - November 30, 2016

William Abreu Galan

Beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather

LOWELL—William Abreu Galan, 76, a resident of the Belvidere neighborhood, passed away on Wednesday evening, November 30, 2016 at his home. He was the husband of Carmen (Cintron) Abreu.

Born in Constanza, Dominican Republic on February 11, 1940, William was a son of the late Andre Maria Abreu and Juana Galan. He was educated in the Dominican Republic and completed his studies in Puerto Rico. Prior to his retirement, Mr. Galan was employed at Pellon Corporation as a Machine Operator.

William was a hard worker. He enjoyed food, especially Hot Chocolate. William stayed in great shape by working out. He had a great sense of humor and was always happy. William called himself “The Boss”. He will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

William is survived by his wife Carmen (Cintron) Abreu; his daughters, Maria Abreu and Sandra Abreu; his sons, Freddy Abreu and William Abreu, Jr. and his wife Sheila; his grandchildren, Alexander Amparo, Christopher Polanco, Gilberto Abreu, Rafael Martinez, Jasmin Abreu, Maximus Abreu, Dae Abreu, Alivia Abreu, and Gabriela Abreu. He also leaves a sister, two brothers, and several nieces and nephews, cousins, and friends.
